

Week 2: Animals on the move

★ Freestyle warm up

★ Brainstorming puzzle pieces

Complete the table below:

Number	Library item	Explode
1
2
3
4
5
6

Week 2: Animals on the move

★ Putting the puzzle together

How might these all fit together?

★ Complete the table below to build your story:

Setting
Characters
Unexpected Event

Week 2: Animals on the move

★ Use the space below to write the opening of your story:

★ Reflection – condense your story into a haiku!

Remember, a Haiku is a short type of poem that comes from Japan. It has just three lines, and there's a rule for how many syllables each line should have: the first line has 5 syllables, the second line has 7 syllables, and the third line has 5 syllables.